

CLIMBING DIRECTOR Position Description

POSITION CONCEPT

The Climbing Director is responsible for training climbing program staff and for supervising the operation of the rock-climbing program. The Climbing Director must strive to offer a program that is educational and challenging for participants while meeting all national and council climbing standards. This position reports to the Program Director and works closely with the COPE & Climbing Committee.

PRINCIPLE RESPONSIBILITIES

- Exemplify the Scout Oath and Law. Support Boy Scouts of America (BSA) policies and the Aims and Methods of Scouting. Strive to provide a program that is exciting, dynamic and appealing to today's youth; that meets the needs of the youth and the units attending camp; and that is fun and safe.
- Attend monthly pre-camp planning sessions.
- Assist Program Director in hiring area staff. Attend staff hiring weekend in March. In conjunction with Program Director, perform staff evaluations, coaching and counseling. Enforce correct staff uniform and appearance standards.
- Assist Program Director in staff training. Attend pre-camp staff training weekend. Obtain all personal training required. Abide by the rules set forth in the most current "Camp Staff Manual".
- Supervise and coordinate operation of Climbing program and "Climb on Safely" classes. Familiar with requirements of all merit badges, belt loops, pins, awards, activities or recognitions offered in program. Directly instruct participants and/or supervise staff instructors.
- Maintain a clean, safe and efficient program area. Adhere to any required BSA or other area-specific safety standards. Specifically, adhere to "Project COPE and Climbing/Rappelling National Standards" referenced in the National Camp Standards.
- Track and maintain scout merit badge (or other recognition) information using computerized (and paper backup) record-keeping practices. Input individual scout merit badge (or other recognition) information into database (daily or weekly). Ensure that weekly merit badge (or other recognition) information is provided to Program Director each Friday.
- Ensure control and security of climbing equipment and program materials. Ensure that equipment is maintained properly. Maintain current and accurate inventories of program materials, supplies and equipment. Specifically, keep all required rope/harness/helmet/other equipment logs up-to-date in accordance with National Camp Standards. Coordinate ordering of necessary supplies and materials with Program Director. Create and/or maintain a maintenance and replacement schedule for all major equipment.

- Support and participate in camp wide programs, as required.
- Other duties as assigned by Program Director or Camp Director.

Daily Operations

- Make sure each program is presented on time with all materials on hand, ready to go.
- Develop and maintain a program that imparts useful knowledge, that supports the aims and objectives of the Boy Scouts of America, and that is fun, challenging and safe.
- Impress upon all participants that they are only learning some of the basics, and should never attempt activities without experienced, trained supervision and proper safety equipment.
- Strive to be sure that there are plenty of interesting program activities so that campers do not have to stand around waiting.
- See that the program area is always clean and efficient.
- Inspect program materials frequently and keep your Camp Director informed of any supplies needed.
- Ensure a safe and adventurous climbing experience, while fulfilling the requirements of the Merit Badge.

END OF SEASON

- Update the Camp Geronimo Program Area Standard Operating Procedures to reflect current program usage and lessons learned
- Ensure all equipment is inventoried and stored properly
- Ensure the Gear Records and Maintenance Logs area up to date
- Write suggested changes, updates, opportunities, and program adjustments for the upcoming year.
